Between 400 and 500 Veterans Guests of S. V. Fulkerson Camp at Bristol.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., September 19 .- Between 400 and 500 gray-haired, battle-scarred veterans of the Confederate army, from the counties of Southwest Virginia and East Tennessee, were guests of the S. V. Fulkerson Camp here to-day on composing the local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy having served dinner.

The reunion exercises were held at the pavilion in Virginia Park, and were attended by several hundred people from the city and adjacent counties in addition to the veterans. The old soldiers were welcomed by George M Warren, the new Mayor of Virginia Bristol, who delivered a brief and eloquent address. The chief address of the occasion was then delivered by Colonel William A. Henderson, of Washington, general solicitor of the Southern Railway, and himself one of the veterans of the sixtes. His subject was divided into three heads: 1. "The Rebel Soldier of 1861"; 2. "The Rebel Soldier of 1865"; 3. "The Rebel Soldier of 1865"; 3. "The Rebel Soldier of 1912." He emphasized the great value of these meh in peace and war alike, pointing out examples of old soldiers were welcomed by George war alike pointing out examples of their loyalty to the reunited country, who were foremost anong those who took up arms in our defense when the nation was being assailed by a foreign

TAFT WILL ROOT FOR RED SOX

Beverly, Mass., September 19.-Dur ing the coming world's series games in Boston one of the leading "rooters" for the Red Sox, who yesterday were assured of the American League nant when Philadelphia lost one gam nant when Philadelphia lost one game in Chicago, will be President Taft.

Day by day the President Taft was the County of the Red Sox keep up their stride toward the pennant, and to-day announcement was made at the executive offices that the President would be "down among the fans" when the first game of the world's series is played in Boston.

The "resident had hoped when he came to Beverly that the Washington American League team might win the pennant, and expected to see at least one game on the Washington grounds in which his favorites figured. With Washington out of the race, however, he turned his allegiance temporarily to the Red Sox, and his sympathies will be with them in the post-season series.
